

Present your investigations!

Working in small groups and sharing your findings, decide which evidence of Cutty Sark's historical importance would be best to present to get the money to fix the ship.

Write a letter to persuade funders to donate money to repair the ship

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Persuasive phrases:

Therefore      In contrast      For example
Furthermore      For instance

Back at school

Ask for extra time to prepare your 'case'

Preparation ideas:

Further research

Find images

Create a ppt

Present your evidence and your teacher will decide which applications are successful and whether Cutty Sark receives the money!

Historical enquiry trail KS2

Use your discovery skills to find out about why Cutty Sark is an important London landmark. The situation detailed below is imaginary, but your discoveries are real!

Teacher to read - The scenario

Imagine Cutty Sark has a water leak which desperately needs repairing, the leak will cost £1million to fix. Without this repair the ship may have to close.

and discover what makes Cutty Sark important. If you can prove that Cutty Sark is historically important the money will be given to fix the leak!

You are an important team of historical investigators. Your job is to investigate

Is Cutty Sark important and worth fixing?

What do you see and what does this tell us about Cutty Sark?

You are using historical enquiry skills to make observations! As historical investigators, you are going to continue to use your skills to explore of the rest of the ship.

Location: Lower hold

Look around the lower hold for evidence that proves that Cutty Sark is historically important - you can read the signs, look at the objects and watch the video. Make notes and drawings here:

Is there something here that you think is particularly important or interesting?

Location: Tween Deck

Look around the Tween deck for evidence that proves that Cutty Sark is historically important – you can read the signs, look at the objects and watch the video. Is there something here that you think is particularly important or interesting?

Make notes and drawings here:

What have you discovered and why do you think it is important or interesting?

Location: Weather Deck

Look around the Weather deck for evidence that proves that Cutty Sark is important. Is there something here that you think is particularly important or interesting? Why do you think it is important or interesting?

Make notes and drawings here:

What have you discovered and why do you think it is important or interesting?